Dear Don: DM —

I passed your referral of 10 October regarding [redacted] both to the Office of Personnel and to some others where she might fit in well.

STAT

Personnel advises me that our [redacted] recruiter will contact her in the near future to arrange for an interview. Also, Dick Kerr mentioned to me (and said he might pass on to you over the net at center court) that they might have some interest in her.

STAT

I hope it works out; always glad to help.

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Robert B. Anderson, former Secretary of the Treasury, called today recommending the following person to the Agency. The person concerned is [Redacted], a third generation Russian descendant, who graduated from Wellesley and the London School of Economics. She is in her early thirties, formerly did economic research [Redacted]
